

HERALD CAMERA-MEN TELL THEIR STORY

Hockey on Roller Skates Latest Sport at Miami

Guilty of Graft

Roller hockey is the newest innovation at Miami Beach, Fla., the fashionable community that's always looking for something new. Two teams of eastern and western players have been staging games. Here's how it looks.

(By Pacific & Atlantic)
Col. Charles R. Forbes (above), former head of the United States veterans' bureau, and John W. Thompson, a contractor of St. Louis, Mo., were found guilty of conspiracy to defraud the government in awarding hospital contracts by a jury in Federal court at Chicago.

Alaskan Dog Teams Rush Precious Serum to Nome as Diphtheria Plague Spreads

Here's one of Army Signal corps Alaskan dog teams stationed on Yukon trail, between Tanana and Nome, that rushed anti-toxin to help halt diphtheria in the latter city.

Women's World Fair

(By Pacific & Atlantic)
Mrs. Medill McCormick (left) and Mrs. William Hurd at a luncheon in New York discussing plans for a world exposition, exclusively for women, which will open in Chicago, April 18.

The Way to a Dancing Master's Heart

(By Pacific & Atlantic)
A bevy of girls came down to the pier and in this lively style bade good-by to John Tiller, dancing master, and his wife, who sailed from New York on the liner Seythia on cruise to seventeen Mediterranean ports.

Two-Gun Bill Jr. Himself

A real he-boy, that's what Bill Hart Jr. is getting to be, and his mother, Winifred Westover Hart, has but one regret—that Daddy Bill doesn't quite realize what a gem Bill Jr. is right now. The dad's father sends him lots of fine presents and the young fellow sees all his dad's films.

Unbalanced

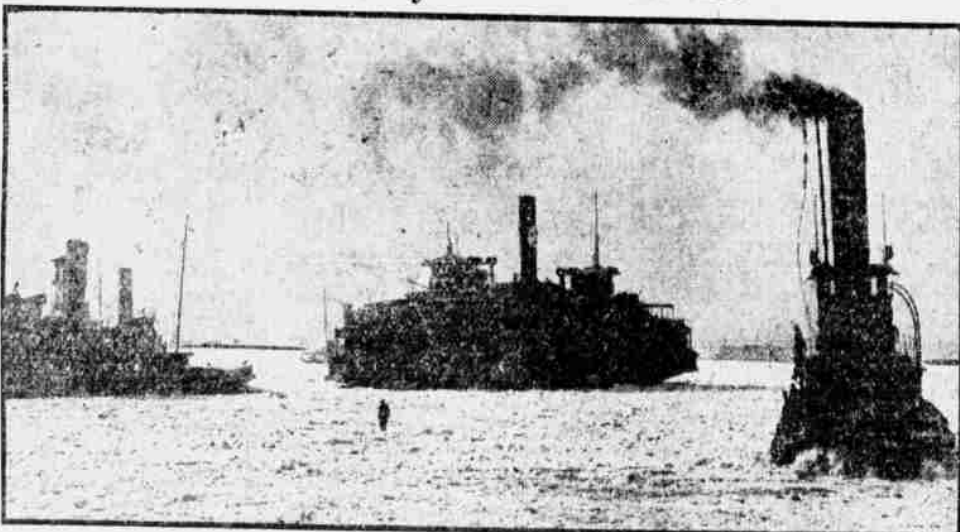

(By Pacific & Atlantic)
Though Private George C. Cordy, 22, confessed to Providence, R. I., police that he killed Mary Gleason, whose body was found at Fort Adams, R. I., the authorities do not accept the statement, as physicians believe him to be mentally unbalanced.

Temperature, 20 Degrees Below Zero, Hampers Firemen

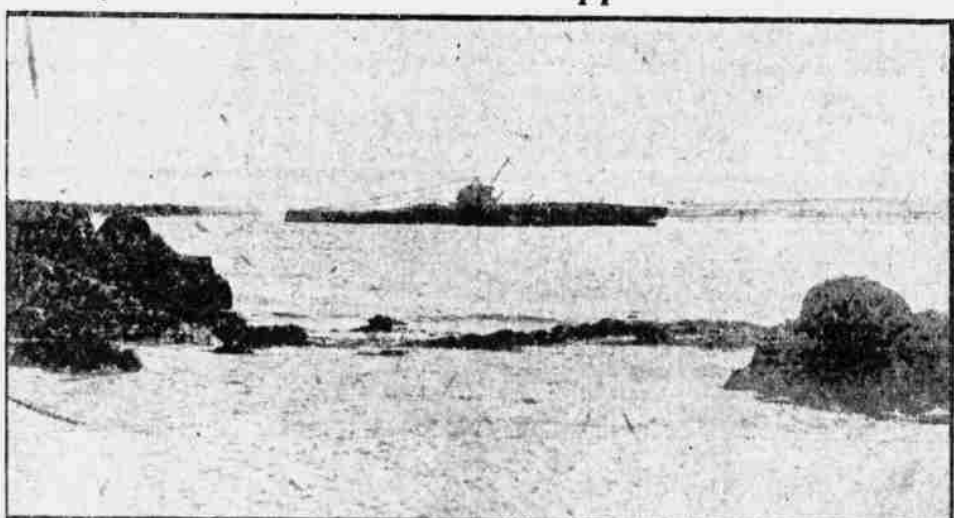

(By Pacific & Atlantic)
In weather 20 below zero, firemen waged battle against flames which destroyed three buildings in Montreal, Quebec. Note fire engine frozen in.

Chases Ferryboat Over the Ice

(By Pacific & Atlantic)
Leaping from floe to floe in Hudson river, New York, Joseph Peters set out to catch ferryboat he missed. He caught the boat all right, but finding it went in wrong direction, from chagrin or loss of balance he fell through ice. He was lassoed by crew of a tug, transferred to a ferry and sent to psychopathic ward for observation.

Forty-six Officers and Men Trapped in Submarine

Beauty

(By Pacific & Atlantic)
A trifle more than three years of age, Della Bogard already has won five prizes for beauty and physical perfection. She is a native of San Diego, Cal.

Which Is Which? Can You Tell Them Apart?

(By Pacific & Atlantic)
When Moe Bauer (right) lost a tooth, teacher in P. S. 136, Brooklyn, N. Y., thought at last she'd be able to tell him from brother, Sid. But Sid had Moe pull out a tooth—and now! Do you blame teacher for being in despair?
(Copyright 1925: Pacific & Atlantic Photos, Inc.)

Dream Ended

With suit filed by Charles H. Duell to restrain Lillian Gish (above) from working for another film company but his coming ending of his dream of love. Duell was divorced by his first wife with announced purposes of making way clear for him to wed. Miss Gish denies she contemplated matrimony with him.

Won Race With Stork

(By Pacific & Atlantic)
An American, all right, is the blue-eyed daughter of Walter Levandowski, war veteran. He rushed wife from Germany in time to have newcomer arrive in Hoboken, N. J.

Starting Young

(By Pacific & Atlantic)
Fore! Yes, that's exact age of Elsie, daughter of Bobby Cruikshank, noted golf pro, who is shown teaching her difficult art of driving.